

More Terminology

Gilding—the application of gold leaf to the writing surface

Illumination—the decoration of a text

Co-joined—Two letters joined together. Often used in the Gothic script

Diamonds—the square strokes used as entry and exit strokes on Gothic lowercase letters (Textura Quadrata)

Floriated—Decorated with flowers

Cadel—Ornament used on Gothic capitals and made from interlacing pen strokes